and uniform cleaning and alteration fees. Any alterations must be completed by August 1, 2024.

4. The sponsor is responsible for selection and arrangements for the purchase of all uniforms.

C. Insurance

1. It is recommended that each cheerleader be covered by adequate accident insurance. O'Donnell I.S.D. will provide at-school insurance for all cheerleaders.

2. The O'Donnell School system is not liable for any injury or expenses resulting from participation in the cheerleading program outside of the school year.

D. Attendance at Practice and Games:

Routines may not include anything that must be cleaned up following the performance (i.e. water, confetti) and no props should be used that might cause damage to the performing surface. The judge(s) will be looking for originality, humor and spirit, character development, exaggerated motion, and use of props.
- 4. The Eagle mascot will be a member of the cheerleading squad and will travel with the squad and be governed by the same rules and regulations.

III. Responsibilities and Obligations

A. All cheerleaders must maintain a passing average in compliance with UIL standards. If a cheerleader fails to maintain his/her grades, he/she will be placed on probation for the following grading cycle according to UIL rules and not allowed to cheer. If after this probation period there is no improvement in grades, the cheerleader will relinquish his/her title as a Varsity Cheerleader.

B. All cheerleaders are expected to maintain conduct beyond reproach. Each cheerleader will abide by the cheerleader Code of Conduct. If there is improper conduct, it will be to the discretion of the principal and sponsor as to the consequences. Improper conduct may be grounds for immediate dismissal. Such things as smoking, drinking, improper conduct with the opposite/same sex and other unacceptable actions will not be tolerated. Varsity and Junior High cheerleaders, as representatives of O'Donnell ISD School, will always behave like young ladies/gentlemen at all times.

C. All cheerleaders must realize that cheerleading requires a great deal of time. This includes time before and after school, some late practices. Practice and/or sign making will be limited to four (4) hours per week during the school year.

IV. General Policies

A. Cheerleading Sponsor

- 1. The cheerleader sponsor is appointed by the principal from members of the faculty.
- 2. The cheerleader sponsor has full control and respect from the cheerleading unit at all times.
- 3. The cheerleader sponsor shall secure travel arrangements for the cheerleading squad to out-of-town football and basketball games.

B. Summer Camp & Other Activities

- 1. The cheerleading squad will attend a 3-day cheerleading camp. The selection of the camp shall be made by the sponsor and principal. Camp will be at home this year. Dates for camp are TBD. Each cheerleader will be required to pay a $200 deposit to help with camp cost.
- 2. Fundraisers for both JH and HS are mandatory. These funds help contribute to the things needed throughout the cheer season. Each cheerleader will be responsible for a certain amount. If that amount is not met with fundraising, the remaining balance will be the responsibility of the cheerleader.

3. The sponsor and cheerleaders are responsible for the planning and implementation of homecoming activities and basketball sweetheart activities for the O'Donnell student body. All plans should be approved by the principal.

4. All cheerleaders must report to practice and activities beginning the first day of two-a-day football practices to prepare for the upcoming season. All family and summer activities must be scheduled before that first day of practice.

For every day they miss of either camp or planning activities during the month of August they will have to sit out of partial or full performances.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Each cheerleader has duties to fulfill and an image to uphold while being a representative of O'Donnell Schools. Appropriate behavior and responsibility are expected from any person elected as an O'Donnell cheerleader. At the sponsor and/or principal's discretion, strikes may be issued against a cheerleader for failure to meet any requirements listed in the O'Donnell High School Cheerleading and Mascot Handbook or any situation listed below.

Consequences against you may be issued for the following reasons:

- Being late to practice, pep rallies, the bus, before games, fundraisers, or any scheduled event. There will be a 5-minute grace period.
- Not knowing the material/not practicing at home
- Unexcused absence from a game, practice, fundraiser, pep rally, or any other required activity.
- Not having pep rally planned at least one week before scheduled practice.
- Not having proper attire for practice. (i.e. shoes for lifting and performing stunts, clothes within the dress code)
- No cell phones during scheduled event. (practice, pep rallies, fund raisers, games, etc.)
- Any disciplinary action that has to be taken and is brought to the sponsor's attention.
- Receiving a progress report because of grades. As a leader, grades need to be taken care of and you should be going to your teacher for help. If more help is necessary, your sponsor will get you the help you need. MAKE THE EFFORT!
- Wearing any part of your uniform, including shoes, at any time other than related cheerleading activities. The cheerleading jacket or pullover MAY be worn at any time as the only exception!!

- Wearing jewelry while in uniform at any practice or cheerleading related event that may cause injury. Jewelry must be approved by sponsor.
- Hair must be neat, and face must be visible while performing any cheerleading activities. Hair must be approved by sponsor.
- Wearing the wrong uniform or missing a required part of the uniform.
- Inappropriate behavior in or out of uniform. NO display of affection - kissing, holding hands, or excessive hugging while in uniform. There will be no tolerance for any other behaviors that are unbecoming of a cheerleader.
- Unnecessary conversation with the crowd or fellow cheerleaders, horseplay, or cutting up during the game.
- Leaving during the game or eating during the game. Eating at half time is okay.
- Talking back to the sponsor and/or direct disobedience to the sponsor or any adult. The sponsor has authority at all times.
- Not participating in a fundraiser for the amount you are to sell, and you do not sell will be counted as a demerit against you.
- ATTITUDE! ATTITUDE! ATTITUDE! Direct or indirect disrespect to fellow squad members or the sponsor. (i.e. mouthing, rolling eyes, mocking, talking back, gossiping, complaining, talking about others, etc.) As well, lack of enthusiasm.

NOTE: The responsibility of a cheerleader is to CHEER THE GAME, WORK THE CROWD, and BUILD THE SPIRIT. Cheerleaders will cheer during every time-out and between quarters. When the game is in a close situation, there should be constant cheering. When the fans do not participate and help you cheer, you do not have permission to have an attitude with the crowd. When the fans start cheers in the stands, cheerleaders will smile and cheer along with them. If a cheerleader refuses to perform up to cheerleader standards, he/she will be benched.

Consequences

As stated on page 3 of the Cheerleader Handbook, practice is mandatory. Due to scheduling difficulty we only have one day that allows for us to practice during the week. This makes it crucial that each girl is present. If cheerleaders are consistently missing practices, it will cause us to need weekends to fill those missed practices.

Any missed practice will result in a consequence.

First offense- verbal warning

Second offense- sitting out of pep rally

Third offense- sitting out of pep rally and ½ of the game

Fourth offense- sitting out of both pep rally and game

Fifth offense- removal from the squad

 practices missed due to illness will be excused for that week BUT will still count towards the total number of practices missed.

These consequences are also followed for conduct and behavior issues that may arise.
